The Angel Tree

The Angel Tree is scheduled to be set up on November 11, 2023 at 9:30 am in Criswell Hall. The Department of Social Services requested an earlier date as they want all of the children to receive their gifts by Christmas. The tags will be available on Sunday, November 12th.

There are duplicates of each tag. The original tag is for you to take and purchase a gift and return the original tag attached to the gift. Please sign your name on the duplicate tag and leave it on the Angel Tree.

The duplicate tag is used in case your original tag is lost. It also helps me to contact persons who may not have provided their gift.

The Angel Tree gifts are for foster children and other needy children in San Luis Obispo County.

The children's names are provided by social workers and other fine staff from the San Luis Department of Social Services.

All of the gifts are to be returned to the church or the church office by December 8th or before. The final date is Monday, December 11th by noon.

Thank you again for your generous support for these needy children.

The Lord's Blessings to you all.

TREASURER'S REPORT

Tax Planning of Charitable Giving

There can be significant tax advantages to giving appreciated stock directly to our Church rather than selling the stock and paying capital gains. Those that must take a Required Minimum Distribution from an IRA should be aware that a distribution made directly to a charitable organization such as our church can have significant tax advantages. The person pays NO tax on a charitable rollover distribution and the gift does NOT become part of the normal limitations on charitable deductions.

Gifts to the First United Methodist Church of Arroyo Grande may be applied to your annual giving, designated for a specific purpose, or put into the Endowment funds, depending on your wishes. Some members have already taken advantage of these tax saving options to make contributions to our church. Please consult your tax advisor for further details.

UWF Book Club November Book: Empty Mansions

The UWF Book Club will meet on Friday, November 17th at 10:30 A.M. in the church library to discuss an unusual true story, Empty Mansions: The Mysterious Life of Huguette Clark and the Spending of a Great American Fortune by Bill Dedman.

Although she was healthy, Huguette spent the last twenty years of her life in a hospital room, while she owned extravagant empty mansions in California, New York, and Connecticut. She inherited her wealth from her father, W. A. Clark, a copper baron in the Gilded Age. This story covers her eccentric ways including gifting her nurse with $30 million, pursuing painting, buying gifts for strangers, and guarding her privacy. The final drama involves the fight over who will get her $300 million inheritance.

You are invited to join the discussion about Huguette Clark on November 17th. Copies of the book are available from Judy Leonard or Patti Melsheimer. Books will be available from a library book kit so you won't have to purchase your own copy.

BISHOP ESCOBEDO-FRANK

Peace on Earth?

This article is printed verbatim from the email of October 15th from the California-Pacific Conference of the United Methodist Church.

One of my favorite songs from the folksong movement of the '50s and '60s is "Let There Be Peace on Earth," by husband and wife team Sy Miller and Jill Jackson-Miller. The lyrics include:

*Let there be peace on earth,
and let it begin with me;
let there be peace on earth,
the peace that was meant to be.*

*With God our creator, family all are we.
Let us walk with each other in perfect harmony.*

The song first debuted in a mountain retreat setting, and Sy Miller describes this moment:

"One summer evening in 1955, a group of 180 teenagers of all races and religions, meeting at a workshop high in the California mountains locked arms, formed a circle and sang a song of peace. They felt that singing the song, with its simple basic sentiment--'Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me'--helped to create a climate for world peace on earth and understanding." (History of Hymns: "Let There Be Peace on Earth").

A scripture that always spoke deeply to me is the words of Jesus as he looks out over Jerusalem:

As he came near and saw the city, he wept over it, saying, "If you, even you, had only recognized on this day the things that make for peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes."

We write songs about peace, understanding that true peace begins at home, with us, with me. We hear the ancient cry of the prophets, proclaiming peace is rooted in justice and mercy. And we hear the cry for peace from Jesus, calling us to finally understand what is needed for us to live in peace, to bring good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives, recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor. Today, a song lyric and Jesus' weeping for peace are filling my soul.

My soul is heavy because we know what does not make for peace.

Bombs and guns do not make for peace
Human massacre does not make for peace.
Walls and barriers do not make for peace.
Hunger, lack of education, and inability to feed one's family do not make for peace.
Throwing young protesters in prison does not make for peace.
Sacrificing Black and Brown bodies on the streets of our country does not make for peace.

Power-mongering and political posturing do not make for peace.

We know the things that don't work, and yet, for some illogical and heartless reason, we continue to do them.

What are the things that make for peace?

Peace has to begin in each of our private and social lives. We bear our own responsibility for "peace on earth."

Sharing meals with neighbors and hearing their stories makes for peace.

Laying down weapons of war and initiating actions for peace-making... these will bring peace.

Ending hunger, poverty, and hopelessness brings peace.

Acknowledging power and privilege that keeps us blind to others' truth builds peace.

Tearing down walls and having no-wall celebrations at the sites of former barriers will bring peace.

Sharing power for the good of the whole brings peace.

My heart grieves over the horrific escalation of violence in southern Israel and throughout Gaza in the long-standing struggle over this beloved land of two peoples and three faiths.

My soul grieves about the ongoing war in Ukraine and Russia. And my heart recognizes all the places where war is ongoing but never mentioned in the news.

And also, my soul cries for the war that exists in our very own hearts: wars of disconnection, rage, hurt, and pain that bring about a desire for revenge.

We are not God-like enough to get ourselves out of these situations. We need God's help today. But we can do things that initiate peace in our world.

We can boldly declare violence is wrong.

We can call for our leaders to do the work that makes for peace.

We can love our neighbors, both nearby and across the globe.

We can pray and act and speak forth a new way of living in peace.

I am praying for all the people grieving in Israel. And all the people grieving in Palestine. And I am praying for us. That we would be bold enough to live our very own lives in peace, maintaining justice, equity, and the chance to freely live the way Jesus prayed and cried for.

God, be near. God, bring comfort. God, teach us how to live in peace.

Gifts of the Magi

Last week a man came to the office asked if we are the church with a woman pastor. Frances said it is, and gave Mary's name. Then he said "a friend" has something for her. He later returned with a tattered box with a little twine string wrapped around it. Frances did not recognize the person and we do not know who it was. Rev. Mary opened the box and found an unsigned, penciled note saying it was a gift to our church. The box contained nearly empty vials of Frankincense and Myrrh oil and three coins. Thinking the whole thing was in jest she put the coins in the Finance box in the office and tossed the rest. When I checked the Finance box on Sunday morning, I found three 1-ounce gold Canadian Maple Leaf coins. Finance Committee voted to sell the coins and set the funds aside in a special non-budget account. The coins sold for $5550.00! The funds are being saved for a future need. Rev. Mary has been praying for unexpected money for our church. It appears her prayers are being answered. As we enter this holiday season, perhaps you will consider doing something special for our church, as did our mystery giver. And a big thank you and many blessings to our anonymous benefactor.

The Tour of the Arroyo Grande Cemetery, with Jim Gregory, a well-known local Historian as our guide, Saturday, October 7 was most interesting and enlightening about the history of our town. Didn't realize we had so many people with notable backgrounds!

Coming up Saturday, November 11th, Butterfly Walk and (possible) picnic will be held. Meet at church at 10:30 to carpool or 10:45 at the butterfly Reserve on Highway 1 in Pismo Beach. Check connections table for details.

December 2 will be our annual Christmas Variety Program. We will be looking for actors and actresses, singers, piano players, magicians, performers of all kinds. There are a lot of talented people among us. Sign up at the Connections table.

Our committee is responsible for the many fun activities this church puts on. We are busy getting some great field trips together, but we need more input, so come join our group and help us plan interesting activities for the congregation. Talk to Mary Hawkins or Gerry McGuire or Cindy Rohla.

News from the Mission Team

Robin and Rob Isakson, chairs

The Arroyo Grande United Methodist Children's Center is once again sponsoring Pennies for Turkeys. Every Fall plastic piggy banks are available to congregants to take home and fill with pennies, nickels, quarters and even dollar bills! These piggy banks can be found in the church narthex. The money raised is then given to the Five Cities Christian Women's Food Pantry to purchase turkeys to be used in Christmas Baskets for families in our community who are food insecure. For every $1.00 that is given, it has a value of $10.00 at the Food Bank. That is an incredible return on your donated $1.00! This event has been taking place since 2005 and over $4,438.62 has been raised. Please don't miss this opportunity, your pennies and spare change are needed to help families in our community. This year's goal is to raise $500. Last year's donations totaled $645.80. Please return your piggy banks by Sunday, November 19, 2023.

Rob and I started long ago by taking two piggy banks. We filled and returned one that fall and the second piggy bank was kept at home and filled throughout the year with, what we call, Thank Offerings. Any spare change that we received or coins found on sidewalks, etc. were added to the piggy bank. As events happen throughout the year, such as birthdays, when good news comes, any happy events like a new baby, a donation or Thank Offering is placed in the piggy bank. Over the course of a year it's quite amazing how many coins can accumulate. Which reminds me that I have four months of coins in my wallet to place in this year's piggy bank. Coins that were collected in a small bowl at our home in Minnesota and made the journey to California for this fund raising event. I hope you will take our Thank Offering idea and fill a second piggy bank, bowl or jar throughout the New Year to donate during the Fall of 2024 Pennies for Turkeys Community Service Project. We all have so very much to be Thankful for.

On Tuesday, October 31, we again served a hot meal to approximately 60 individuals who attended the People's Kitchen for a Halloween meal. Mission Team members are reminded that we have a special presentation on Wednesday, November 8 at 11 .a.m. If you are available, your attendance is appreciated. A Mission Team meeting is being planned and, once scheduled, a date and a time will be e-mailed to you. We want to thank the members and non-members who covered the People's Kitchen service on August 29 in our absence.

From Max Lucado's Walking with the Savior:
You may look ahead and see some crisis coming down the pike and think, I will never be able to handle that. You probably couldn't right now, but God is with you and He will give you the strength you need.
