*RESPONSE Blest Be the Tie That Binds No. 557

*Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love;
 The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above.
 Before our Father's throne we pour our ardent prayers;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one, our comforts and our cares.
 We share each other's woes, our mutual burdens bear;
 And often for each other flows the sympathizing tear.
 When we asunder part, it gives us inward pain;
 But we shall still be joined in heart, and hope to meet again.*

POSTLUDE He Is Exalted Twila Paris/arr. Mark Hayes

*Please stand as able.

Today's Scripture

Psalm 34:1-8

I will bless the LORD at all times;
 his praise shall continually be in my mouth.
 My soul makes its boast in the LORD;
 let the humble hear and be glad.
 O magnify the LORD with me,
 and let us exalt his name together.
 I sought the LORD, and he answered me,
 and delivered me from all my fears.
 Look to him, and be radiant;
 so your faces shall never be ashamed.
 This poor soul cried, and was heard by the LORD,
 and was saved from every trouble.
 The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
 O taste and see that the LORD is good;
 happy are those who take refuge in him.

Matthew 9:19-26

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, 'My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live.' And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, 'If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well.' Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, 'Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well.' And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute-players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, 'Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping.' And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.
