LITURGIST: The earth has its kings, but God is the ruler of all.

PEOPLE: Praise God above all, the giver of life!

LITURGIST: The mountains may tremble, the oceans may roar,

PEOPLE: But God's presence is more powerful than the earth itself.

LITURGIST: Come into God's presence, for God is among us now.

PEOPLE: O God, show us your glory; we seek your ways.

LITURGIST: Come to the Rock, the God of life, for God is present now.

*HYMN NO. 111 "How Can We Name a Love"

CHILDREN'S MOMENT

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

PASTOR: Let us join together in this prayer.

ALL: Gracious God, hear us now. We want to know you, serve you, and to be like you. Yet even as we desire to be close to you, we are tempted to extol ourselves and pursue glory that is yours alone. Help us when our minds are closed. Soften our hardened hearts that we might regard everyone with the same love and grace that you show to all people. Loosen the tightness we have with our resources that we might offer ourselves and belongings as generously as you have offered yourself and your gifts to us. Forgive us for past wrongs and renew us to begin afresh, with steadfast hope and powerful love. Amen.
