

Today's Scripture

Mark 1:9-15

At that time Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. Just as Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw heaven being torn open and the Spirit descending on him like a dove. And a voice came from heaven: "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased." At once the Spirit sent him out into the wilderness, and he was in the wilderness forty days, being tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals, and angels attended him. After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God. "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!"

In the name of Christ Jesus, we welcome you to the First United Methodist Church of Arroyo Grande and to this service of worship. We are all so happy that you have joined us here today. Your presence is a gift and we hope that you will find our worship meaningful and that you come worship with us again.

If it is your first time with us, our Ushers have a gift for you in the Narthex and hope that you will join us for goodies in our fellowship hall so that we can get to know you. We hope to see you again soon!

We invite you to fill out the pew pad as it is passed and give us a record of your attendance. If you have any special concerns or needs that this congregation is to be aware of, or you have a need to see the Pastor, please don't hesitate to let us know. You can either write it in the pew pad or fill out the prayer card in the pew in front of you and place it in the offering plate as it passes. Contact our church office at the phone numbers and e-mail listed on the back of this bulletin.

We praise God that you are here with us today!

Our 2015 Lenten Study

MOSAIC When God Uses All The Pieces

Wednesdays

5:45 PM in Criswell Hall

MOSAIC by Rev. Shane Stanford examines how the God of the universe uses the broken pieces of our lives to reframe our purpose, turning our discarded hopes and dreams into something beautiful and useful—a mosaic in which God uses all of the pieces. The author says, "This journey will take us along the same path Jesus walked in the days surrounding his journey to Jerusalem. We will see the similarities to our own stories as well as the lessons we should pick, like pebbles along the path." This seven-session study provides one lesson for each week in Lent. Each lesson includes a key Scripture reference, a brief reading, questions for reflection or discussion, a brief prayer, and guided helps for daily Scripture reading and additional reflection in the coming week.

Prelude Yours Is The Kingdom
(Cindy Berry)

Choral Introit

† Call To Worship Pastor David
* Please rise as you are able in body and/or spirit for our Call to Worship

One: Please join me in our Call To Worship. Our Lenten journey has begun.

Many: Let us follow the example of Jesus who...

One: listened for the voice of God in the wilderness,

Many: followed the leading of the Holy Spirit

One: and resisted temptation.

Many: Jesus is the Bread of Life.

All: Let us feast on him during this Lenten season.

* Please remain standing for our opening hymn.

Children's Moment Pastor David

Nursery care is available. Children ages K-6 are dismissed with their teachers at this time to room 211. Junior & Senior high will meet in church.

Call to Confession Pastor David

Pastor: Our God is ever more ready to listen than we are to pray. Let us bring our whole selves to this time of prayer, opening our hearts to God in honest acknowledgement of our shortcomings

Prayer of Confession

All: In these moments of stillness, let us think back to those wonderful resolutions that it seems we just made as the new year began. It is only February and yet...we confess those resolutions thoughtfully made were quickly broken. So we come to you again, accepting God, to admit we have fallen short and to give our good intentions another try. We confess that we have squandered our time instead of having meaningful interaction with the children in our lives. We regret that we have neglected our lonely neighbor, our elderly church member, our home-bound acquaintance. We are sorry for the times we have

All: spoken in anger or impatience when a listening ear or kind word would have helped instead of hindered. In these moments of silent stillness, we offer our private confessions for those things which weigh down our hearts and minds. (Silence.) Unburdened now, let us choose an intention and pledge before God to make our intention a reality as we travel the Lenten road to the new life of Easter.

Assurance of Pardon

Pastor: My friends, know that God hears our prayers which we say together and which we have lifted in the silence of this sanctuary of safety and love. Lent offers us a chance to begin again, knowing that God knows us through and through and loves us still. In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven. Thanks be to God. Amen.

Prayer For Illumination Pastor David

One: Please join me in our prayer for illumination:

Many: Almighty God, your Word is a precious gift to us. Open our hearts and prepare our minds to hear your Word read and proclaimed in a way that is pleasing to you. Amen.

Scripture Mark 1:9-15 In Unison
