AUGUST 2019

REPORT FROM THE ACTING TREASURER

We completed our Fiscal Year, which ended June 30th, in good financial shape. Thanks to the generous support of our congregation, overall stewardship, which includes holiday offerings, was $295,802 which was 100.8% of plan. Expenses were slightly below plan. This allowed us to pay back another $3,000 of the Endowment loan. The Church still owes the Endowment Board $9,000. The loan from the Endowment Board allowed us to get through a difficult period a few years ago without resorting to major staff layoffs.

The preliminary budget for this coming Fiscal Year requires a modest $5000 increase in overall Stewardship. We are planning for increased emphasis on the Children's Ministry and Congregational Care, along with modest raises for members of our staff and anticipated increases in some expenses.

The Estimates of Giving received thus far leave us about $21,000 short of what we need. If you have not turned in an Estimate of Giving, please do so, in order that we can properly budget for the coming Fiscal Year. Estimate of Giving cards can be found in the Narthex and may be placed in the offering plate or mailed to the Church Office.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Our Wednesday Night Bible Study will resume after our summer break on Wednesday, September 4 at 5:00 PM (Please note the time change to 5:00 PM)

Sept. 4 will begin a series on Stories Jesus Told: How to Read a Parable by Greg Carey. You will explore six of Jesus' parables to learn how to read, interpret, and live them in your daily life.

Oct. 23 will begin a series on Down to Earth by Mike Slaughter. You will learn that nothing about the Christmas story is ordinary. Mike Slaughter says it's enough to confound the mind and make the heart contrite. This study opens up God's Christmas surprise to us and examines how it changed everything.

Nov. 20 will begin the Advent study Light of the World by Amy Levine. You will explore the biblical texts surrounding the story of Jesus' birth, tracing the Christmas narrative through the stories of Zechariah and Elizabeth, Mary, the journey to Bethlehem, and the visit from the Magi.

Please mark your calendars and plan now to join us for these studies. You will find that it is an enjoyable, yet informative hour of sharing together.

From the Pastor

A CARING CONGREGATION!

What do you care about? Starting at the center of the circle, your list probably reads something like “I care about God, Christ, the Church. I care about my family and friends, my health, my work, my relationships.”

Speaking for the universal Church with a capital “C” the list might read “We care about redemption, salvation, spreading Good News, i.e. sharing the kerygma with future generations.”

A specifically United Methodist rendition might read” “We care about our world---social justice, missions, outreach, creation, the environment and all the important issues that are included when we throw out the net of God’s Grace.”

In August, I’m “fielding” themes in sermons that are important to us at Arroyo Grande First. One week, it will even be an experimental dialogue sermon with Joel Anderson! You can pick up the ball too! Toss it around and start some life-giving dialogue in our community. What do you care about?

AUGUST SERMON AGENDA (ASA)

August 4 – WE CARE ABOUT KIDS!

August 11 – WE CARE ABOUT SENIORS!

August 18 – WE CARE ABOUT COMMUNITY!

August 25 – WE CARE ABOUT THE BIBLE! (a dialogue)

The word “ASA” is of Hebrew origin? It’s a name that means “doctor” and “healer”. Asa was the third king of Judah, who reigned for forty years. The Urban Dictionary says “Asa” refers to the most amazing person in the world, a God-send, perfect in every way! (Jesus?!!!)

Align yourself with the August Sermon Agenda, ASA! Be amazing. Create healing conversations and think about what the Bishop has charged our congregations to present at Charge Conference 2019. What do you see as important for the church going forward? What’s your vision for the church you want to be a part of?

There are many tacks we can take come September. I’ll start off with “WE CARE ABOUT MUSIC”, come September 8th as the choir returns! Music, worship, fellowship, outreach? Immigration, LGBTQIA, the environment? Do you prefer safe waters or do you like to traverse controversial terrain? What floats your boat? Create healing conversations.

The whole world is in God’s Hands!

THE UMM HAS GONE FISHING FOR THE SUMMER!

UMM ACTIVITIES WILL RESUME IN THE FALL

UMW BOOK CLUB TO DISCUSS IN AUGUST TO KILL A MOCKINGBIRD

After a summer break the UMW Book Club is meeting again on Friday, August 23rd at 11 AM in the McMillen Room. We will be discussing a classic, To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee. Copies of To Kill a Mockingbird are available through the library system and in used book stores.

The story is told through the eyes of a young girl, Scout, whose father is defending a black person who has been accused of raping a white woman. In the 1960's South justice is difficult to find for a black person. Still her father, Atticus, who takes up the fight to free this innocent man, exemplifies his belief in doing what is right.

Come join the group as we focus on this relevant novel that has recently been adapted for Broadway. Everyone is welcome to drop in this meeting or future ones. The UMW Book Club meets the fourth Friday of each month.

“The organized unit of the United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ to develop a creative, supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.”

Dear Church Family,

It has been very exciting to plan activities this past year. Remember to invite your friends in the community to join us in these activities. Since this is a new program, we are making decisions and testing the waters.

Most of the events/activities are free or have a small fee to offset the cost of the event/activity. There is a small budget and scholarships are sometimes available (call me). If you are housebound, don't drive, or need help getting to church, please let me know.

When you sign up, it's absolutely necessary that, if there are costs described on the sign-in sheet, the fee must be paid at least one week prior to the event. (You understand, like when you make an airline reservation, you pay when you make the reservation.) It's the only way I can gauge for food, transportation, set up and the number of people needed to support the event.

Looking forward to continuing Program Ministry; share your ideas. Email me.

NOTES from the CHANCEL CHOIR

▲ Director's Note...

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you is all I can say about our last fundraiser! We raised a little over $5,000. This church is so amazing, and I don't know where to start with my words of thanks, but I will give it a go. Please forgive me if I forget someone.

First to the Set-up crew and clean-up crew (many were the same): Carolyn, Dave, Bob, Sandy, Irene, Barbara, Mike, Christy Clarke, Nancy, Dick M., Heidi & Jacqui.

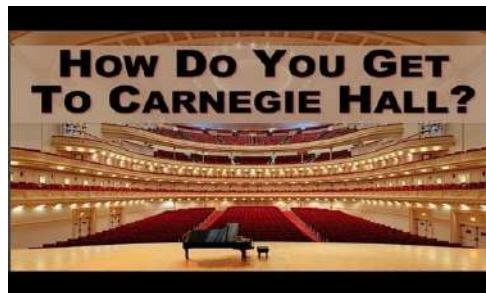

To BG & Barbara for securing our venue.

To the band, Dennis & Art Dougal who had to set up all the equipment while I bossed everyone else around. Ha!

To Dave, Carolyn, Jackie & B.G. for their extraordinary musical talents. Thanks for the hours of practice and the time given.

To Irene for the fabulous decorations. Great Job! We always know who to go for class and elegance in transforming our venues.

To the Chef extraordinaire, Jacqui Burns and her trusty helper Heidi Quiggle who donated her time. The food was wonderful and the tables looked amazing.

To the bartenders who were not only very experienced and hardworking, but much fun and entertaining!

To all the very generous donors of our auction items food and drinks: Joel Anderson, Madonna Inn, Doc Burnstein's Ice Cream, Ron's Nursery, Mike & Connie Clark, Sandy & Bob Underwood & Patti & Dick Melshiemer, Nancy & Chuck Burns, B.G. Perriguy, Burns & Eiler.

To all the very generous supporters who bought the auction lots and paid for tickets. (too many to mention by name)

To our Auctioneer Lee who also donated his time and put up with all my neurotic behavior, who also, by the way is the love of my life.

To Sandy who was there whenever, wherever, with whatever task I asked of her; to bounce ideas off or perform the littlest of details. Thank you, my friend and cohort! I can't imagine doing any of it without you.

As you can see it takes a Village or a very loving and supportive church to get to Carnegie Hall.

Much love and thanks to all!

Immigrants – Migration – Immigration – Migrants!

The newest issue of National Geographic magazine's cover story says, "A World on the Move – Seas rise, crops wither, wars erupt. Humankind seeks shelter in another place." Not just in the United States but all over the world people are experiencing the effects of "people on the move". The latest United Nations report says that 68.5 million people have been forcibly displaced by the end of 2017! According to the United Methodist Board of Church and Society, forced displacement is "a crisis of global proportions and immense moral and ethical implications." Most of us cannot imagine what it must be like to abandon one's home nation due to war, natural disaster or economic hardship.

I can remember during WWII we were concerned about "DP's" – "Displaced persons" who were moving throughout Europe to escape the horrors of war. We sent toothpaste and other personal goods to help them. During the Vietnam War many areas in California welcomed refugees from Laos, Cambodia and Viet Nam. Today Europe is experiencing migration from North Africa and Eastern Europe. The United States is experiencing immigration from Mexico, El Salvador, and other Central American countries.

"How strong is the push to leave? To abandon what you love? To walk into the unknown with all your possessions stuffed into a pocket?" wonders Susan Goldberg, the author of the National Geographic article. "It is more powerful than fear of death."

We sometimes forget that all of us are descended from migrants. Today, in the United States, we seem to be closing our doors, ignoring the fact that our parents, grandparents, or maybe our great grandparents were immigrants. We seem to have forgotten the quote by Emma Lazarus, on the Statue of Liberty, that says, "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me."

The United Methodist Church upholds practicing hospitality to migrants, immigrants, refugees, and others without regard to race, status, nationality or religion. The United Methodist Social Principles, found in our Book of Discipline, include a section titled "Rights of Immigrants" that states, "We recognize, embrace, and affirm all persons, regardless of country of origin, as members of the family of God. We affirm the right of all persons to equal opportunities for employment, access to housing, health care, education, and freedom from social discrimination."

The United Methodist Board of Church and Society urges people to speak out by calling their members of Congress, writing an op-ed piece or connecting with local immigrant advocacy and support networks. Oppose fear mongering and xenophobia in conversations in public and in private—at the market, at church, at school, and at home. Remember that God has not given us a spirit of fear, but a spirit of power, love, and sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7 NKJV). Be an active citizen and speak out to make society better.

GOD'S STEADFAST LOVE...IN ACTION

1. MAKING A POSITIVE DIFFERENCE

This is what we as a congregation are about. Our congregation has a history of making a difference in the lives of people around the world. Our support enables Global Ministries to fulfill the mission of the Church through evangelism and church growth with our covenant relationships.

Just this last month we have received notes and letters from several of the places we have supported. We have joined in the ecumenical support of Shower the People, a local ministry in our county that provides opportunity for people to have a hot shower and be able to feel good about themselves.

We heard from Enickson Villiere in Haiti as he continues to serve his church, build his business and his home for his family...all with health issues for all three of them. He remains positive and so appreciates the prayers for him and his ministry.

We heard from Advance GCFA in appreciation of the check from the Hammond Endowment fund in the amount of $855.00 for the United Methodist Mulungwish Theological School in the Democratic Republic of Congo.

We also heard from Mobility Worldwide as a thank you for the $500 gift which was matched by another donor to make it go further in making carts that allow for individuals to be mobile. They no longer have to rely on someone else to move them from place to place.

WE are blessed. WE are making a positive difference in a variety of ways. The mission team is working on ideas for expanding our ministry especially in our own community. If you have an idea you would like to share with us, please do. Watch for what is coming next. We invite all of you to be a part.

Many hands made much possible!
