Psalm 71

In you, O Lord, do I seek refuge;
 let me never be put to shame.
 In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free;
 incline your ear to me and save me.
 Be for me a stronghold to which I may ever resort;
 send out to save me, for you are my rock and my fortress.
 Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked,
 from the grasp of the evildoer and the oppressor.
 For you are my hope, O Lord God,
 my confidence, even from my youth.
 Upon you have I leaned from my birth,
 when you drew me from my mother's womb;
 my praise shall be always of you.

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

If I speak in the tongues of mortals and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. If I give away all my possessions, and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind; love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice in wrongdoing but rejoices in the truth. It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. But as for prophecies, they will come to an end; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will come to an end. For we know only in part, and we prophesy only in part; but when the complete comes, the partial will come to an end. When I was a child, I spoke like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; when I became an adult, I put an end to childish ways. For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then we will see face to face. Now I know only in part; then I will know fully, even as I have been fully known. And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
