INTROIT	All Hail King Jesus	TFWS #2069
CALL TO WORSHIP* [Liturgist] Beloved, God’s never-ending love spills out all around us, drawing us together in beloved community with God, neighbor, and all creation. [All] Rejoice in the Lord always, and again we say, rejoice! [Liturgist] God’s always-present grace surrounds us, enlivening us to love ourselves and our neighbors just as Christ loves us. [All] Rejoice in the Lord always, and again we say, rejoice! [Liturgist] God’s persistent peace sweeps through us, guarding our hearts and empowering us to live as agents of God’s mercy and justice wherever we go. [All] Rejoice in the Lord always, and again we say, rejoice! [Liturgist] May our rejoicing overflow into our families, neighborhoods, and the whole earth that through our living, working, resting, and playing, God may be glorified. [All] Rejoice in the Lord always, and again we say, rejoice!
OPENING HYMN*	The Servant Song	TFWS #2222
WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS
OPENING PRAYER [All] God of welcome, You call us from many places and gather us at Your table. You meet us in joy and in weariness, in hope and in worry, in plenty and in need. Lead us by Your Spirit today, so that in prayer, song, Scripture and silence we may know Your presence, receive Your peace, and be made ready to serve Your world; through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Matthew 22:1-14

The Parable of the Wedding Feast

22 Jesus again used parables in talking to the people. 2 “The Kingdom of heaven is like this. Once there was a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. 3 He sent his servants to tell the invited guests to come to the feast, but they did not want to come. 4 So he sent other servants with this message for the guests: ‘My feast is ready now; my steers and prize calves have been butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast!’ 5 But the invited guests paid no attention and went about their business: one went to his farm, another to his store, 6 while others grabbed the servants, beat them, and killed them. 7 The king was very angry; so, he sent his soldiers, who killed those murderers and burned down their city. 8 Then he called his servants and said to them, my wedding feast is ready, but the people I invited did not deserve it. 9 Now go to the main streets and invite to the feast as many people as you find.’ 10 So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, good and bad alike; and the wedding hall was filled with people. 11 “The king went in to look at the guests and saw a man who was not wearing wedding clothes. 12 ‘Friend, how did you get in here without wedding clothes?’ the king asked him. But the man said nothing. 13 Then the king told the servants, ‘Tie him up hand and foot, and throw him outside in the dark. There he will cry and gnash his teeth.’”

14 And Jesus concluded, “Many are invited, but few are chosen.”
